

ON THE ARK

Genesis 7:1-24

Genesis 7

¹The LORD then said to Noah, “Go into the ark, you and your whole family, because I have found you righteous in this generation. ²Take with you seven of every kind of clean animal, a male and its mate, and two of every kind of unclean animal, a male and its mate, ³and also seven of every kind of bird, male and female, to keep their various kinds alive throughout the earth. ⁴Seven days from now I will send rain on the earth for forty days and forty nights, and I will wipe from the face of the earth every living creature I have made.”

⁵And Noah did all that the LORD commanded him.

⁶Noah was six hundred years old when the floodwaters came on the earth. ⁷And Noah and his sons and his wife and his sons’ wives entered the ark to escape the waters of the flood. ⁸Pairs of clean and unclean animals, of birds and of all creatures that move along the ground, ⁹male and female, came to Noah and entered the ark, as God had commanded Noah. ¹⁰And after the seven days the floodwaters came on the earth.

¹¹In the six hundredth year of Noah’s life, on the seventeenth day of the second month—on that day all the springs of the great deep burst forth, and the floodgates of the heavens were opened. ¹²And rain fell on the earth forty days and forty nights.

¹³On that very day Noah and his sons, Shem, Ham and Japheth, together with his wife and the wives of his three sons, entered the ark. ¹⁴They had with them every wild animal according to its kind, all livestock according to their kinds, every creature that moves along the ground according to its kind and every bird according to its kind, everything with wings. ¹⁵Pairs of all creatures that have the breath of life in them came to Noah and entered the ark. ¹⁶The animals going in were male and female of every living thing, as God had commanded Noah. Then the LORD shut him in.

¹⁷For forty days the flood kept coming on the earth, and as the waters increased they lifted the ark high above the earth.

¹⁸The waters rose and increased greatly on the earth, and the ark floated on the surface of the water. ¹⁹They rose greatly on the earth, and all the high mountains under the entire heavens were covered. ²⁰The waters rose and covered the mountains to a depth of more than twenty feet. ²¹Every living thing that moved on the earth perished—birds, livestock, wild animals, all the creatures that swarm over the earth, and all mankind. ²²Everything on dry land that had the breath of life in its nostrils died.

²³Every living thing on the face of the earth was wiped out; men and animals and the creatures that move along the ground and the birds of the air were wiped from the earth. Only Noah was left, and those with him in the ark.

²⁴The waters flooded the earth for a hundred and fifty days.

God sent a male and a female of every kind of animal to go on the ark with Noah.

THE BIBLE TIMES HERALD

A SPECIAL REPORT ON GENESIS 7:1-24

ON THE ARK

God was sad because of all the sin in the world. He told Noah to build an ark.

After Noah finished building the ark, God told him to go into the ark. God said to take both clean and unclean animals on the ark. For each kind of animal, there were both male and female.

When Noah was 600 years old, floodwaters came on the earth. Each kind of animal entered the ark along with Noah and his family.

Heaven opened up and it began to rain for 40 days and 40 nights. The water lifted the ark high above the earth. There was so much water that the ark floated more than 20 feet above the highest mountain!

Every animal that lived on the on land died, including humans. Only Noah, his family, and the animals on the ark would be able to survive the flood.

The waters flooded the earth for 150 days.

To find out more, read Genesis 7:1-24 in your Bible.

QUESTIONS

God made rainbows to remind us that he would not destroy the earth by flood again.

The people sinned. God told Noah to build an ark because he was going to flood the earth.

Two by two the animals went,
(Hold up two fingers and bounce them up and down)

To the ark where they were sent.
(Point to an imaginary ark)

On the boat safe and sound,
(Cross your arms as if hugging yourself)

Until it landed on dry ground.
(Point to the ground)

Noah, his family, and the animals were safe on the ark. They came out of the ark.

Have You Ever Sinned?

The Bible teaches that we have all sinned and do not measure up to God's glory. It also teaches that the price for sin is death which separates us from God. But even though we are sinners, Christ died for us and paid the price for our sin. We just need to ask him to forgive us and receive his free gift of salvation. Just pray this prayer, with a sincere heart, and Jesus will forgive you of your sins. You will become a child of God and live with Him in heaven.

“Dear Jesus,

Please forgive me for the bad things that I have done. Please come into my heart and be my Lord and savior. In your name I pray, Amen.”

When the dove Noah sent flew back, he knew the ground was dry.
