

EHUD THE JUDGE

Judges 3:12-30

Judges 3

¹²Once again the Israelites did evil in the eyes of the LORD, and because they did this evil the LORD gave Eglon king of Moab power over Israel. ¹³Getting the Ammonites and Amalekites to join him, Eglon came and attacked Israel, and they took possession of the City of Palms. ¹⁴The Israelites were subject to Eglon king of Moab for eighteen years.

¹⁵Again the Israelites cried out to the LORD, and he gave them a deliverer—Ehud, a left-handed man, the son of Gera the Benjamite. The Israelites sent him with tribute to Eglon king of Moab.

¹⁶Now Ehud had made a double-edged sword about a foot and a half long, which he strapped to his right thigh under his clothing. ¹⁷He presented the tribute to Eglon king of Moab, who was a very fat man. ¹⁸After Ehud had presented the tribute, he sent on their way the men who had carried it. ¹⁹At the idols near Gilgal he himself turned back and said, “I have a secret message for you, O king.”

The king said, “Quiet!” And all his attendants left him.

²⁰Ehud then approached him while he was sitting alone in the upper room of his summer palace and said, “I have a message from God for you.” As the king rose from his seat, ²¹Ehud reached with his left hand, drew the sword from his right thigh and plunged it into the king’s belly. ²²Even the handle sank in after the blade, which came out his back. Ehud did not pull the sword out, and the fat closed in over it. ²³Then Ehud went out to the porch; he shut the doors of the upper room behind him and locked them.

²⁴After he had gone, the servants came and found the doors of the upper room locked. They said, “He must be relieving himself in the inner room of the house.”

²⁵They waited to the point of embarrassment, but when he did not open the doors of the room, they took a key and unlocked them. There they saw their lord fallen to the floor, dead.

²⁶While they waited, Ehud got away. He passed by the idols and escaped to Seirah. ²⁷When he arrived there, he blew a trumpet in the hill country of Ephraim, and the Israelites went down with him from the hills, with him leading them.

²⁸“Follow me,” he ordered, “for the LORD has given Moab, your enemy, into your hands.” So they followed him down and, taking possession of the fords of the Jordan that led to Moab, they allowed no one to cross over. ²⁹At that time they struck down about ten thousand Moabites, all vigorous and strong; not a man escaped. ³⁰That day Moab was made subject to Israel, and the land had peace for eighty years.

A SPECIAL REPORT ON JUDGES 3:12-30

EHUD THE JUDGE

The Israelites did evil in the eyes of the Lord. Because of this, the Israelites were attacked and the king of Moab ruled over them for 18 years.

The Israelites cried out to the Lord for help. The Lord sent Ehud to the king of Moab with a gift.

Ehud made a double-edged sword, about a foot and a half long. He strapped it to his right thigh under his clothing.

Ehud gave the gift to the king and said, "I have a secret message for you, O king."

The king said, "Quiet!" And all his servants left him.

As Ehud approached the king, he pulled out his sword and plunged it into the king. The king was a very fat man. The sword went all the way into the king and fat closed in over the sword.

Ehud locked the doors and left. When the king's servants found the door locked, they thought the king was using the restroom.

When the servants finally unlocked the door, they found the king dead.

Ehud got away. Ehud blew a trumpet to gather together the Israelites.

"Follow me," Ehud said, "for the Lord has given Moab, your enemy, into your hands." The Israelites killed about 10,000 Moabites. The Moabites were ruled by the Israelites and there was peace for 80 years.
