

NAOMI AND RUTH

Ruth 1:1-18

Ruth 1

¹In the days when the judges ruled, there was a famine in the land, and a man from Bethlehem in Judah, together with his wife and two sons, went to live for a while in the country of Moab. ²The man's name was Elimelech, his wife's name Naomi, and the names of his two sons were Mahlon and Kilion. They were Ephrathites from Bethlehem, Judah. And they went to Moab and lived there.

³Now Elimelech, Naomi's husband, died, and she was left with her two sons. ⁴They married Moabite women, one named Orpah and the other Ruth. After they had lived there about ten years, ⁵both Mahlon and Kilion also died, and Naomi was left without her two sons and her husband.

⁶When she heard in Moab that the LORD had come to the aid of his people by providing food for them, Naomi and her daughters-in-law prepared to return home from there. ⁷With her two daughters-in-law she left the place where she had been living and set out on the road that would take them back to the land of Judah.

⁸Then Naomi said to her two daughters-in-law, "Go back, each of you, to your mother's home. May the LORD show kindness to you, as you have shown to your dead and to me. ⁹May the LORD grant that each of you will find rest in the home of another husband."

Then she kissed them and they wept aloud ¹⁰and said to her, "We will go back with you to your people."

¹¹But Naomi said, "Return home, my daughters. Why would you come with me? Am I going to have any more sons, who could become your husbands? ¹²Return home, my daughters; I am too old to have another husband. Even if I thought there was still hope for me—even if I had a husband tonight and then gave birth to sons—¹³would you wait until they grew up? Would you remain unmarried for them? No, my daughters. It is more bitter for me than for you, because the LORD'S hand has gone out against me!"

¹⁴At this they wept again. Then Orpah kissed her mother-in-law good-by, but Ruth clung to her.

¹⁵"Look," said Naomi, "your sister-in-law is going back to her people and her gods. Go back with her."

¹⁶But Ruth replied, "Don't urge me to leave you or to turn back from you. Where you go I will go, and where you stay I will stay. Your people will be my people and your God my God. ¹⁷Where you die I will die, and there I will be buried. May the LORD deal with me, be it ever so severely, if anything but death separates you and me." ¹⁸When Naomi realized that Ruth was determined to go with her, she stopped urging her.

Ruth 1:1-18

Ruth asks Naomi if she can travel home with her

THE BIBLE TIMES HERALD

A SPECIAL REPORT ON RUTH 1:1-18

NAOMI AND RUTH

As you know, it's been rough in these parts with the recent famine. There is little or no food to eat in most of the surrounding areas either.

A couple named Elimelech and his wife

Naomi were seen, the other day, moving to Moab with their two sons. There they'd find food to eat.

After living in Moab for some time, Elimelech died. The two boys each got married. One boy married Orpah and the other married Ruth. Not much time passed before the two sons died as well. Naomi now had no husband or sons.

Sources tell us that God has come to the aid of his people. He is providing food again for his people in the land of Judah.

Witnesses saw Naomi speaking with both of her daughter-in-laws. One witness overheard Naomi telling them to go back to where they came from so they would have food to eat and new husbands to marry.

Naomi began to cry. Orpah decided to go back to where she lived before. Ruth, however, did not want to leave Naomi. She said, "Your people will be my people and your God will be my God." Ruth wasn't going to leave Naomi!

For more details, please read Ruth 1:1-18 in the Bible.

Bible Story Rhyme

Naomi would have been alone,
(Hold up one finger)

If Ruth decided to go home.
(Using both hands, make a roof over your head)

But Ruth decided she would stay,
(Point down with both pointer fingers)

With Naomi all the way.
(Put both pointer fingers next to each other and bounce them up and down as if walking)

Naomi's sons died. Naomi told her daughter-in-laws they should go find new husbands.

Have You Ever Sinned?

The Bible teaches that we have all sinned and do not measure up to God's glory. It also teaches that the price for sin is death which separates us from God. But even though we are sinners, Christ died for us and paid the price for our sin. We just need to ask him to forgive us and receive his free gift of salvation. Just pray this prayer, with a sincere heart, and Jesus will forgive you of your sins. You will become a child of God and live with Him in heaven.

“Dear Jesus,

Please forgive me for the bad things that I have done. Please come into my heart and be my Lord and savior. In your name I pray, Amen.”

Ruth would not leave Naomi alone.
