

ABRAM AND LOT SEPARATE

Genesis 13:1-18

Genesis 13

¹So Abram went up from Egypt to the Negev, with his wife and everything he had, and Lot went with him. ²Abram had become very wealthy in livestock and in silver and gold.

³From the Negev he went from place to place until he came to Bethel, to the place between Bethel and Ai where his tent had been earlier ⁴and where he had first built an altar. There Abram called on the name of the LORD.

⁵Now Lot, who was moving about with Abram, also had flocks and herds and tents. ⁶But the land could not support them while they stayed together, for their possessions were so great that they were not able to stay together. ⁷And quarreling arose between Abram's herdsmen and the herdsmen of Lot. The Canaanites and Perizzites were also living in the land at that time.

⁸So Abram said to Lot, "Let's not have any quarreling between you and me, or between your herdsmen and mine, for we are brothers. ⁹Is not the whole land before you? Let's part company. If you go to the left, I'll go to the right; if you go to the right, I'll go to the left."

¹⁰Lot looked up and saw that the whole plain of the Jordan was well watered, like the garden of the LORD, like the land of Egypt, toward Zoar.

(This was before the LORD destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah.) ¹¹So Lot chose for himself the whole plain of the Jordan and set out toward the east. The two men parted company: ¹²Abram lived in the land of Canaan, while Lot lived among the cities of the plain and pitched his tents near Sodom. ¹³Now the men of Sodom were wicked and were sinning greatly against the LORD.

¹⁴The LORD said to Abram after Lot had parted from him, "Lift up your eyes from where you are and look north and south, east and west. ¹⁵All the land that you see I will give to you and your offspring forever. ¹⁶I will make your offspring like the dust of the earth, so that if anyone could count the dust, then your offspring could be counted. ¹⁷Go, walk through the length and breadth of the land, for I am giving it to you."

¹⁸So Abram moved his tents and went to live near the great trees of Mamre at Hebron, where he built an altar to the LORD.

A SPECIAL REPORT ON GENESIS 13:1-18

ABRAM AND LOT SEPARATE

Abram, his wife, and his nephew Lot spent some time in Egypt during a famine. After the famine, they took all their things back to the Negev.

From there, they traveled from place to place until they ended up between Bethel and Ai. This was where Abram had built his first altar to the Lord. There, Abram called on the name of the Lord.

Abram and Lot had many animals between them. There were not enough pastures or enough water for all of their animals. The herdsman of Abram and Lot began to argue. Abram did not want to argue so Abram decided to separate from Lot.

Abram told Lot that he could choose where he wanted to live. Lot chose the best land near the Jordan River. Abram lived in the land of Canaan.

The Lord told Abram that all the land that he could see would be given to him and his offspring. The Lord also told Abram that his offspring would be like the dust of the earth. Abram's offspring would be so great that they could not be counted.

For more details, please read Genesis 13:1-18 in the Bible.
