THE WEDDING AT CANA

John 2:1-11

John 2

¹On the third day a wedding took place at Cana in Galilee. Jesus' mother was there, ²and Jesus and his disciples had also been invited to the wedding. ³When the wine was gone, Jesus' mother said to him, "They have no more wine."

⁴"Dear woman, why do you involve me?" Jesus replied. "My time has not yet come."

⁵His mother said to the servants, "Do whatever he tells you."

⁶Nearby stood six stone water jars, the kind used by the Jews for ceremonial washing, each holding from twenty to thirty gallons.

⁷Jesus said to the servants, "Fill the jars with water"; so they filled them to the brim.

⁸Then he told them, "Now draw some out and take it to the master of the banquet."

They did so, ⁹and the master of the banquet tasted the water that had been turned into wine. He did not realize where it had come from, though the servants who had drawn the water knew. Then he called the bridegroom aside ¹⁰and said, "Everyone brings out the choice wine first and then the cheaper wine after the guests have had too much to drink; but you have saved the best till now."

¹¹This, the first of his miraculous signs, Jesus performed at Cana in Galilee. He thus revealed his glory, and his disciples put their faith in him.

THE BIBLE TIMES HERALD

A SPECIAL REPORT ON JOHN 2:1-11

THE WEDDING AT CANA

In Bible times, weddings could last for many days. One wedding that Jesus was at with his disciples was on its third day. When the wine was gone, Jesus' mother said to him, "They have no more wine."

"Dear woman, why do you involve me?" Jesus replied. "My time has not yet come."

Jesus' mother told the servants to do what Jesus told them to do.

There were six stone water jars nearby which held 20-30 gallons each.

Jesus told the servants to fill the jars with water. The servants filled each jar to the very top.

Then Jesus told them to take out some water and bring it to the master of the banquet.

The master of the banquet tried the water. It did not taste like water. Jesus had turned the water into wine!

The master of the banquet said, "Everyone brings out the best wine first and then the cheaper wine after the guests have had too much to drink. You have saved the best until now."

This was the first miracle that Jesus performed. This showed the disciples His glory. The disciples put their trust in Him.
